

Cams.com Starlet Takes Home Top Honors at 1st Annual XBiz Cam Awards

Adult film and webcam star Shawna Lenee scores big in South Beach

Campbell, CA – June 5, 2017 - Cams.com announced Monday that Shawna Lenee, one of the site's premiere models, took home the 2017 XBiz Cam Award for "Best Movie/Cam Star." Held June 1st at the Mondrian Hotel in South Beach Miami, the awards show honored the brightest stars in the camming industry. This was the show's inaugural event, making Shawna Lenee the first performer to ever hold this particular title.

Known in the adult world as a model, businesswoman, and social media icon, Shawna Lenee has cultivated a huge fan base, with dedicated admirers from around the world. While she's been in the industry for over a decade, she has most recently made her home exclusively on Cams.com after being scouted by Cams' Adult Industry Recruiter KidDynamite.

"We were excited to welcome Shawna to the Cams roster earlier this year, as she is a legendary performer, and a great person. I'm beyond proud of her for winning this prestigious award," says Cams.com Model Manager Steve Hamilton of the starlet's big win.

While she's no stranger to receiving accolades from the industry, this is her first XBiz award -- something she describes as "a dream come true." The XBiz Cam Awards are voted on by fans, and reportedly more than 1 million votes were cast to choose this year's winners.

In addition to taking home a coveted trophy, the blue-eyed stunner pulled double duty at the XBiz Miami event, co-hosting a panel in which she imparted her secrets of success to eager new cam girls hoping to reach her level of stardom.
